

Patent claims

1. Tablets comprising:

from 20 to 45% by weight of enrofloxacin

from 18 to 35% by weight of lactose

5 from 5 to 10% by weight of microcrystalline cellulose, and from 5 to 20% by weight of meat flavour.

2. Process for producing tablets according to Claim 1, in which

(a) Enrofloxacin, lactose, where appropriate meat flavour and also, where appropriate, additional adjuvants are mixed,

10 (b) the mixture is granulated in the added presence of water or aqueous solutions of additional adjuvants,

(c) this mixture is dried,

(d) after drying, microcrystalline cellulose and, where appropriate, additional adjuvants and also meat flavour, provided this was not added in step (a), are 15 admixed,

(e) and the mixture is subsequently pressed into tablets.